CEMETERY RECORDS OF INDIANA COUNTY,

PENNSYLVANIA

VOLUME I.

Much credit is due the members of the Historical and Genealogical Society of Indiana County for long hours spent in copying grave markers. Without the cooperation of the above mentioned organization this volume would not appear.

Contributed by the JAMES LeTORT CHAPTER, PENNSYLVANIA STATE SOCIETY, DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN COLONISTS.

1957

EARLY FAMILY BURIAL PLOTS ON FARMS

INDIANA COUNTY -- PENNSYLVANIA

ALTEMUS

Located on old abandoned road from Graceton to Luciusboro, Center Township about one mile from Graceton, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. Early records give the location of these farms as Blacklick Township, Center Township was formed from Blacklick.

ALTEMUS	Eve	7-13-1845	70y
	Thomas son of Adam & Eve	3-14-1820	11-0-25

There are six graves in this plot, but only two are marked, Adam Altemus is said to be buried there. There is a tree growing on the grave of Thomas which is two feet across at the ground.

RUGH

Located on the abandoned road mentioned above, about 100 feet back of the magazine of the Graceton Coal Company. The land was owned by Christian or Christopher Rugh who settled there with his wife Elizabeth Post, at an early date.

RUGH	Christopher	3-20-1835	61y
	Elizabeth wf. of Crist	5-3-1841	61y
MIKESELL	Jacob M.	3-9-1817	0-3-6

There are seven graves in this plot.

UNKNOWN

There was a grave about a quarter of a mile away from Rughs, but the location was lost after the marker was taken away and broken up. It is not known who was buried there at this date. March, 1939.
